The background of the cover is a black and white photograph. In the foreground, there is a highly decorative wrought-iron gate with vertical bars and intricate scrollwork. Behind the gate, a multi-story building with several windows is visible. The top of the image shows the roofline of the building and some trees. The title 'The Geechee' is superimposed over the middle of the image, with 'The' in a script font and 'Geechee' in a large, bold, outlined sans-serif font.

Dedication

With proud and grateful hearts, we, the students of Armstrong, dedicate this 1944 'Geehee to our President, FOREMAN McCONNELL HAWES, who, through his interest in each individual, his constant courage, and his strong leadership has been an inspiration to us throughout the year.

FOREWORD

We should like to think that those who browse through this year's annual will absorb some of the atmosphere of our dear Alma Mater—Armstrong Junior College. With this thought in mind we have tried to create an informal pictorial theme to thread its way through these pages. We trust, as one glances from picture to picture, that he will feel the flow of "life" as it actually is among the student body. It is the spirit of youth so full and so free—the spirit we have tried to maintain despite the ravages of war, having received it as an heritage and feeling in our hearts our responsibility to sustain it for posterity.

We want here to express our sincere thanks to Mr. Robert Herriot, who took all student pictures appearing in this annual, and to Mr. Ralph Rhodes, whose pictures of the monuments appear as an historical theme introducing each section. Both of these gentlemen spent much of their time and effort in helping to create through their excellent photography the spirit of the 1944 edition of the 'Geechee.

The aim of the Council on Foreign Relations is to promote further interest in international affairs. The Council meets every other Wednesday at four-fifteen, and topics of current interest are discussed. Some of the most interesting round table discussions were on post-war Germany and post-war planning.

Each year Armstrong Junior College and the Council on Foreign Relations present for the public of Savannah a series of speakers and forums as an Institute of Citizenship.

MEMBERS OF THE COUNCIL ARE: Marie Lyons, president; Marian Nelson, treasurer; Betty Griner, secretary; June Poindexter; Mary Louise Key; Sarah Thorpe; Lillian Blowe; Lisette Black; William Dimer; Frank Cheatham; Marguerite Storer; Catherine Heyman; Mary MacMillan; Laura Byrd; Mary Murphy; Betty Butler; Charlotte Guest, student representative to the Senate. Professor Orson Beecher is Faculty Adviser of the Council.

The Student Senate performs a vital function in the activities of Armstrong by serving as a perfectly representative organization for the entire student body. Its members are selected from all recognized clubs and organizations in the college to discuss proposed student activities and to advise the faculty of student opinion concerning new projects.

This group was greatly instrumental in arranging details for the newly-instituted annual Open House, with the aid and counsel of Dr. Bishop as Faculty Adviser. Capable leadership and active cooperation on the part of its members have made this organization highly successful in its undertakings.

Outstanding Sophomores

The students on this page were chosen by the Sophomore class for their outstanding leadership during their two years at Armstrong. Frank Cheatham was voted the most outstanding.

CORONATION OF FRESHMAN QUEEN

Highlight of this year's annual Homecoming was the coronation of the Freshman Queen, lovely Shirley Johnson. Miss Betty Smith, Freshman Queen of '43, presented the crown to the new Queen and the president of the Freshman Class, Mrs. Frances Cleverdon, gave Miss Johnson a gift on behalf of her class mates.

BEAUTY QUEENS

The May meeting of the Savannah Camera Club this year was devoted in part to the selection of a Beauty Queen for Armstrong.

Miss Betty Hitt won on the first ballot. However, there were three who tied for runner-up. From these three Miss Catherine Heyman was selected.

The candidates represented the clubs of the college and they appear on the following pages.
